GOVERNOR THOMAS R. MARSHALL

Democratic Nominee for Vice-President of the United States.

VICE-PRESIDENT SHERMAN LAID TO REST

Utica, N. Y., Nov. 2.—With simple but impressive services the body of Vice President James S. Sherman was laid away this afternoon in a crypt within a beautiful mausoleum in Forest Hill Cemetery.

Under a canvas covering that served as a shield against a chill November wind were gathered the Sherman family, President Taft, members of his Cabinet, Justices of the United States Supreme court, Senators and members of the House of Representatives and a few intimate friends and business associates of the Vice President, while without a throng which had assembled to pay a final tribute stood reverently until the strains of "Asleep in Jesus," by the male chorus, which marked the conclusion of the services, had died away.

President Taft listened with bowed head and tear-dimmed eyes as Dr. W. M. Stryker, president of Hamilton college, read the brief committal service and Rev. Louis H. Holden, pastor of Christ church, of which Mr. Sherman was a member, offered prayer.

A mixed quartette sang "Good Night," and when the selection by the male chorus had been concluded the president gazed a moment at the flower-covered casket of his friend and slowly made his way to a waiting automobile, accompanied by former Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks, Attorney General Wickersham and Major Rhodes, his military aide.

Earlier in the afternoon there had been private services at the Sherman home and public obsequies at the First Presbyterian church, both of which were attended by the president. The special train bearing the Nation's Chief Executive and party arrived in Utica at 1:30 o'clock and the President at once went to the last Vice President's home to offer his sympathy in person to Mrs. Sherman and others of the bereaved family. He remained for the services there, which were conducted by Dr. Holden, and then went to the church where the funeral services were held.

Georgia-Carolina Fair.

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 4.—The seventh annual fair of the Georgia-Carolina Fair association opened in Augusta today with the greatest display of agricultural products ever seen in this section. The exhibits of live stock, machinery and manufactures are also above the average. The entertainment program provides for a week of horse racing and a football game on Thursday between the University of Georgia and Clemson college.

Bishop Garrett 80 Years Old.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 4.—Rev. Alexander C. Garrett, bishop of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Dallas and one of the most widely known churchmen in the Southwest, celebrated his eightieth birthday anniversary today. Bishop Garrett was born in Ireland and received his education at Trinity College, Dublin. He came to America in 1859 and for ten years was engaged in missionary work in British Columbia. Prior to his election as missionary bishop of Northern Texas in 1874 he had filled pastorships in San Francisco and Omaha.

E. F. Kimbrel went to Sherman Saturday evening where he met his wife and children who were returning from a visit to Arlington and Ennis, Texas.

WILSON INJURED IN ACCIDENT

RECEIVES SCALP WOUND IN AUTO. ACCIDENT—NOT SERIOUSLY HURT.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 3.—Gov. Woodrow Wilson tonight wears a narrow strip of collodion and gauze across the top of his head, covering a scalp wound three inches long, which he received early today in a motor car mishap on the way home from Red Bank, N. J. His automobile struck a mound in the road and jolted him up against a steel rib in the roof of the limousine car. The wound is not serious, and the Democratic nominee will fulfill his speaking engagements in Paterson and Passaic, N. J., tomorrow night and attend to his correspondence as usual early tomorrow.

Tonight the governor was in the parlor of his home, the center of a group of friends. There was nothing in his manner to indicate that he had met with any mishap. He said he did not feel the wound in the slightest degree, and had not even developed a headache from it.

"I guess I'm too hard headed to be hurt," he said, smilingly, as he received the correspondents.

Dr. J. M. Carnochan, the governor's family physician, who dressed the wound, issued the following statement about it tonight:

"When I saw Gov. Wilson this afternoon I found he had received a laceration of the scalp about three inches in length. Otherwise he was in good condition and seemed to be suffering from no ill effects."

The governor's family was kept busy answering the telephone tonight, alleviating the worry of friends who had heard alarming reports, they said, about the accident.

The mishap occurred in the early hours of the morning. The governor had spoken last night at Red Bank, and left for Princeton, a distance of forty-five miles, shortly before 11 o'clock. He rode in the limousine car of Abraham I. Elkus, a New York lawyer who lives at Red Bank, accompanied by Capt. William J. McDonald of Texas, his personal bodyguard, who was shaken and bruised.

"The machine was running about fifteen miles an hour," narrated the governor tonight, "and we were going very smoothly near Hightstown when the jar came. The chauffeur did not see the mound of earth, being deceived by a shadow thrown across the road by a post."

"As we struck, Capt. McDonald and I were thrown against the roof of the car. I felt my head and found it was bleeding. I knew I wasn't seriously hurt, but knew that it was imprudent to continue the journey in the cold, so we stopped some passers-by and, within a few minutes found the home of Dr. Titus of Hightstown. He dressed the wound carefully and cleansed it, and we went on to Princeton."

The physician shaved the governor's hair immediately surrounding the injury, and the strip of antiseptic plaster partly covered the bald spot.

Accused of Killing Fellow Workman.

Hackensack, N. J., Nov. 4.—Philip Roth, of East Rutherford, was arraigned in court here today to stand trial for murder. Roth is accused of having caused the death of Frank Hall, also of East Rutherford, by striking him on the head with a pitch fork. The alleged attack took place on June 23 last and Hall died about ten days later from a fractured skull. Both men were employed by the Interborough Coal Company and the assault is said to have resulted from a dispute over their work.

Bike Stars in Six-Day Race.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 4.—A dozen teams of racing cyclists, hailing from many countries of the world, started in the six-day race at the Boston Arena early this afternoon. Included among the competitors are Pöschel and Gardellin, comprising the French-Italian team; Pye and Grenda, the Australians; Loftis and Diefenbacher, the English-German team; Jimmy Moran of Boston and Joe Fogler of New York; Magin and Cameron, the Scotch team, and Bobby Walthour and Elmer Collins, the Hub Dixie team.

OKLAHOMA SOONERS

DEFEAT JAYHAWKERS

Lawrence, Kans., Nov. 2.—Coming up in the last quarter with two place kicks, the University of Oklahoma football team defeated the University of Kansas here today 6 to 5. The field was muddy and fumbles were frequent by both teams. The game was evenly matched, neither team being able to gain consistently through the line.

Oklahoma owes her victory to the educated toe of Raymond Courtwright who left a sick bed that he might give his team the advantage of his kicking in a pinch. For ten days he has not been in a football suit, until Saturday. Then with the score standing 3 to 0 in favor of Kansas at the opening of the fourth period, by reason of a goal from placement by quarter back Magill of the Jayhawkers, he booted his first goal from the thirty yard line.

A few minutes later, a blocked punt was recovered by Oklahoma behind her own goal line, but resulted in a safety for Kansas and again Kansas went into the lead, only to see Courtwright boot another goal from placement. The game ended just as Magill missed another attempt at a field goal from 40 yard line.

The familiar face of Judge W. G. Currie was seen on the streets of Ada Sunday and today. He had some business in Western Oklahoma and could not resist the temptation to come by Ada. He says the political situation in Tennessee is decidedly mixed and very uncertain.

DISASTER TO TURKISH FORCES

WHIPPED ON ALL SIDES RETREATING TO CONSTANTINOPLE. SHIPS TO SCENE.

London, Nov. 3.—The Turkish army is in full retreat on Constantinople and the Turkish government has asked the Powers to intervene.

An official bulletin was issued by the government at Constantinople tonight admitting defeat at the hands of the Bulgarians in the great battle on the Thracian plains.

Application was made to the Embassies in Constantinople tonight for mediation by the Powers to end the hostilities and arrange a peace agreement.

The ambassadors, prior to this, had asked the Porte to grant permission to each of the great Powers to send one warship through the Dardanelles and this request had been complied with. The only guarantee of safety for the native Christians and perhaps foreigners in Constantinople is to be found in the presence of the warships of the great Powers in the harbor of the Turkish capital.

It is the general belief that Bulgaria will refuse to listen to anything in the way of intervention until the Bulgarian army is at the gates of Constantinople and will insist that Turkey make an appeal direct to the allies without interference from the Powers.

The Powers have not been able to agree upon the French Premier's formula of "territorial disinterestedness," which is not acceptable to either Austria or Germany. They are taking steps however for the protection of Christians and their own political interests in Turkey.

One warship, in addition to the vessels already dispatched to the Turkish ports, will be sent through the Dardanelles by each of the Powers.

Beyond the statement that the Turkish army is retreating to the last line of fortifications outside Constantinople, there was little news received from the seat of war tonight. Fighting was reported along the line from Chiorlu to Serai, which was the outcome, doubtless, of the effort of the defeated Turks to retire within the Chatalia lines, which the Bulgarians are doing their utmost to prevent.

The besieging forces are tightening their grip around Adrianople and the bombardment is becoming more vigorous.

In other directions the allies are consolidating their occupation of Turkish territory. The Greeks have taken Nicopolis and Prevesa and have landed a division of men at Stavros, which is marching to attack Saloniki. An uncensored dispatch from the latter town intimates the likelihood of its surrender without resistance.

To Name Sherman's Successor.

New York, Nov. 4.—After a conference between President Taft and several members of his Cabinet and Republican Senators and Representatives, it was officially announced here tonight that no successor to Vice President Sherman on the Republican ticket would be selected until after the election.

Although President Taft was understood to have approved early announcement of a Vice Presidential choice, he was won over to the other view, and it was said tonight that the National Committee at its meeting Nov. 12 will make the selection.

The President reached New York tonight shortly after 10 o'clock. Attorney General Wickersham, Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel, and Postmaster General Hitchcock, of his Cabinet, Chairman Hilges, of the Republican National Committee, and Senators Root, Crane and Penrose, were visitors on his private car on the way down from Utica.

The President remained in New York tonight and will leave tomorrow night for Cincinnati. He will go by way of Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton and other big Ohio towns. Although he has no speeches scheduled for the trip, it is probably that he will appear on the rear platform of his private car at many places and say a last word to his fellow Ohioans before election.

The beautiful weather brought a large crowd to the city today and as a result of the cold snap the clothing men seem to be doing a thriving business.

Decision in Indian Land Case.

Muskogee, Nov. 1.—Judge Ralph E. Campbell of the United States Court handed down an opinion today, in which he held that the act of congress of April 26, 1906, providing for the re-imposing of restrictions on certain Indian lands, was constitutional. This applies particularly to lands inherited by parents.

The constitutionality of the act was raised in the 30,000 land suits pending in the court here, and the opinion is supplemental to one rendered by Judge Campbell on Aug. 14 last.

The court holds that congress alone has the power to increase or decrease the scope of the restrictions placed on Indian lands, and the secretary of the interior could not declare alienable or permit the sale of land on which restrictions had been placed by congress.

SOMERSAULTS OF ROOSEVELT

William Jennings Bryan Analyzes Record of Third Term Candidate

HIS SUDDEN CONVERSION

No Message in Behalf of People's Cause in Seven and a Half Years
T. R. Was President

By WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN.
Solomon says that the borrower is servant unto the lender. If this applies to one who borrows ideas Mr. Roosevelt does not recognize the obligation, for he has not only borrowed from the Democratic party as few public men have borrowed from an opposing party, but he has shown himself strangely ungrateful for the ideas taken. Of course it will not be contended that an idea can be patented. It is the only thing, in fact, that is not subject to monopoly.

Even Mr. Perkins, with all his fondness for the trust, would not contend that a monopoly in ideas could be formed and made subject to regulation by a bureau appointed by the president. Mr. Roosevelt, however, has won his popularity by the advocacy of things previously advocated by the Democrats, and still he is all the while assailing the Democrats bitterly and has shown toward them a hostility that is hard to explain.

To show the extent of his borrowing, let me enumerate some of the things which he now advocates that were advocated by the Democrats at an earlier date.

Shall the People Rule?

Take his paramount issue of the present campaign—namely, the rule of the people. The platform adopted by the Democratic national convention at Denver four years ago contained the following:

"Shall the people rule?" is the overwhelming issue which manifests itself in all the questions now under discussion.

Here is the very phrase which he employs, and it is not only declared to be an issue, but the overwhelming issue. It was dwelt upon by the candidates and by other speakers during the campaign, so that Mr. Roosevelt, then president, may be assumed to have had notice of it. He not only refused to admit then that it was the paramount issue, but he displayed extraordinary activity in urging upon the country Mr. Taft, whom he has since declared to be the agent of bosses and the enemy of popular government.

It would seem that he ought to make some slight acknowledgment of his indebtedness to the Democratic party for suggesting this issue to him. At least, he might put the issue in quotation marks.

He is now advocating the direct election of senators, but if he ever expressed himself in favor of this reform earlier than two years ago the fact has escaped my observation, and I have not only watched carefully, but waited anxiously, for some favorable expression from him.

Long Fight For Popular Election of Senators.

The Democratic party began the fight for the popular election of senators twenty years ago this summer, when a Democratic house of representatives at Washington passed for the first time a resolution submitting the necessary amendment. Since that time a similar resolution has been passed by the house in five other congresses—first, in 1894 by another Democratic house; then, after two congresses had elapsed, by three Republican houses, and, last, by the present Democratic house. During the twenty years the reform has been indorsed in three Democratic platforms, the platforms of 1900, 1904 and 1908, and it has been indorsed by the legislatures of nearly two-thirds of the states. Mr. Roosevelt must have known of the effort which was being made by the people to secure the popular election of senators, and yet he took no part in the fight. During this time he was president for seven and one-half years, and it is quite certain that a ringing message from him would have brought victory to the people's cause, but no message came. Four years ago the convention which he controlled and which nominated Mr. Taft rejected, by a vote of seven to one, a resolution indorsing this reform.

Still Mr. Roosevelt did not say anything. He neither rebuked the Republican convention nor indorsed the strong plank which was included in the Denver platform. Even Mr. Taft went so far during the campaign of 1908 as to say that PERSONALLY he was INCLINED to favor the popular election of senators by the people, but Mr. Roosevelt did not even indicate an intention in that direction. Now, when the reform is practically secured—the amendment being before the states for ratification—he declares himself in favor of it. Would it not be fair for him to indicate in some way his appreciation of the long continued fight waged by the Democrats in behalf of this reform before he espoused it?

T. R. and the Income Tax.

Mr. Roosevelt is in favor of an income tax. How long since? His first indorsement of it was during his second term, and then it was suggested as a means of limiting swollen fortunes and not as a means of raising revenue. The Democratic party included an income tax provision in the Wilson law of 1894. When this provision was declared unconstitutional by the supreme court by a majority of one the Democratic party renewed the fight and has contended for the income tax in three national campaigns. In 1908 the Democratic platform demanded the submission of an amendment specifically authorizing an income tax—the very amendment now before the states for ratification. Mr. Roosevelt's candidate, Mr. Taft, declared during the campaign that an amendment was not necessary, and Mr. Roosevelt never made any argument in favor of the amendment or in favor of the principle embodied in it. The amendment has now been ratified by thirty-four states; but, so far as I know, Mr. Roosevelt has never made a speech in favor of its ratification nor, since the submission of the amendment, made a speech urging an income tax as a part of our fiscal system. It would not require any great stretch of generosity on his part to credit the Democratic party with priority in the advocacy of this reform. Not Always For Railroad Regulation.

Mr. Roosevelt is now an advocate of railroad regulation. When did he commence? The Democratic party in its platforms of 1896, 1900 and 1904 demanded an extension of the powers of the interstate commerce commission. Up to 1904 Mr. Roosevelt never discussed the subject of railroad regulation officially or in public speech, so far as I have been able to find. Although nominated without opposition in the convention of 1904, his platform contained no promise of railroad regulation. By its attitude on the railroad question the Democratic party alienated the support of those railway officials who counted themselves Democrats, and Mr. Roosevelt, both in 1900, when he was a candidate for vice-president, and in 1904, when he was a candidate for president, had the benefit of the support of those ex-Democrats. It was in 1904 that he wrote his famous letter to Mr. Harriman and in the state of New York profited by the campaign fund that Mr. Harriman raised.

When after 1904 Mr. Roosevelt took up the subject of railroad regulation he found more hearty support among the Democrats in the senate and house than among the Republicans, so that he has reason to know that the Democratic party has for a long time planted itself boldly upon the people's side on the subject of railroad regulation.

Under the circumstances we might expect some complimentary reference to our party's attitude instead of anathemas.

T. R.'s Complete Somersault.

On the subject of publicity as to campaign contributions he has not only adopted the Democratic position, but he has been compelled to turn a complete somersault in order to do so. In 1908 the Democratic platform demanded the publication before election of the names of individual contributors and the amounts contributed. Mr. Roosevelt at that time indorsed Mr. Taft's contention that the publication should be deferred until after the election, and even went so far as to give reasons for believing that it would be improper to make the publication before the election. Two years later he declared in favor of publicity before and after the election, landing on the Democratic side shortly before the law was enacted carrying out the Democratic platform on this subject. Here, surely, he ought to praise the Democratic party for the pioneer work it has done in purifying politics.

Here are a few of the things which bear the Democratic brand, and with all of his experience on the plains he will not be able to "work the brand over" so as to make it look like "T. R."

REPUBLICAN HOPE RESTS IN WILSON

Gov. Burke Declares for Democrat and Gives His Reasons.

By JOHN BURKE, Governor of North Dakota.

The election of Governor Wilson is the only thing that can save the Republican party. Four years of President Taft has split it in two. We have no reason to believe that he will be any different or that his second administration, if he is re-elected, will be any more satisfactory to the people than his first. His re-election will mean the division of the Republican party into many warring factions, which can only result in final dissolution of all.

The end will come quicker and just as certain if Roosevelt is elected, for he is no longer a Republican, but is the leader of a new party, at war with the Republican party, as it is with the Democratic party. On the other hand, if Wilson is elected the Roosevelt party will perish; the Republicans will reorganize their party, purge it of the baneful influence of corporate power and greed and make it again the grand old party it was in the days of Lincoln.

Louis D. Brandeis performed a real public service when he quoted the records to show that George W. Perkins is and always has been an enemy of union labor.

Wonder if Emerson was gazing upon a mouse call when several decades ago he wrote: "I am the owner of the sphere, Of the seven stars and the solar year."

The nation has awakened to a sense of neglected ideals and neglected duties.

We stand face to face with great questions of right and justice.
Parties and platforms and candidates should be frankly put under examination to see what they will yield us by way of progress.

THREE MEN WOUNDED AT POSSUM HOLLOW

Muskogee, Ok., Nov. 2.—James Wilkinson was shot through the body just above the heart and may die; James Jackson, a peace officer, was shot through the right arm, and John Snyder sustained a scalp wound at Possum Hollow, near here, last night. A "pie supper" was under way and one man was auctioning off the pies. One of the bidders took exception to the manner of conducting the sale and fired a revolver into the crowd. The people were stampeded and the pies trampled under foot. Jackson tried to make an arrest and was fired on. He returned the fire. A pistol duel followed.
Jackson was arrested and released on $500 bond, pending the condition of Wilkinson.

WOODROW WILSON.

TOMORROW'S BATTLE.

It is now all over but the voting. Before another issue of the News is in the hands of its readers, the great battle of the ballots will have been finished and the world will know a few hours later who will guide the destiny of the nation for the next four years. At the last moment the prospect of an overwhelming Democratic victory could not be brighter. The entire country is tired of Republican boss rule and will eagerly embrace this opportunity to throw it off and brain the rule of the trusts with the ballot box. For many years politicians have been declaring the Democratic party dead and have often announced that it had been buried, but such a thing is impossible to happen and instead it appears that it is the Republican party, which until recently towered as a mighty colossus, that has been broken into fragments. A party which could survive a war and six successive defeats, as did the Democratic party, cannot be killed by a few defeats such as have befallen it during the past eighteen years.

The Bull Moose and the elephant are still scrapping over the electoral ticket. Some Republicans are claiming that as many as three of the Republican electors are for Taft, while the Bull Moose managers insist that all of them if they should happen to be elected would vote for Roosevelt. It may be safely asserted that there is one Taft man on the electoral ticket and that is possible for the Taft Republican to cast one tenth of his vote for Taft, but in casting the other nine-tenths of that vote he must decide between Roosevelt and Wilson. It will be a very easy matter for the Taft Republican to stamp in the square opposite the name of D. M. Flick, the Taft Republican on the electoral ticket, and in the squares opposite nine of the Wilson electors. There is but little doubt but that this is what a large proportion of the Taft Republicans will do.

A country editor in Michigan in the heat of the campaign charged that Roosevelt sometimes takes too much "tea" and that he also indulges in profanity when the occasion demands it. The strenuous one is now prosecuting him for criminal libel and also suing for $10,000 damages.

We expect to put just one mark on our ticket tomorrow—a cross in the circle just beneath the rooster. National, state and county we shall take ours straight.

The weakness of the Republican cause and dearth of campaign material has been well shown this time by the fact that in Oklahoma they have had almost nothing to say about national issues. They have spent their time cussing the state administration and let Taft take care of himself.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS FORESEE VICTORY

This morning the News received a wire from Senator Gore regarding the political situation in which he said: "Our victory will be overwhelming if we get out every Wilson vote. Reports everywhere most gratifying."

Chairman McCombs wired as follows: "Bring out every Wilson vote. Make our assured victory sweeping."

FAILED TO GET WARRANT FOR RUSSELL

Cherokee, Okla., Nov. 4.—Criminal libel charges against Campbell Russell, originator of the bill to recall the members of the state board of agriculture and publisher of "The Cat" the organ of the Peoples' Power league, were sworn to here Saturday by O. A. Brewer, member of the board, but County Attorney Riley Cloud refused to issue a warrant against Russell.

The county attorney refused to take action on the statements made regarding Brewer which were published in recent issues of "The Cat" holding that they were not sufficient evidence of the charge.

Brewer with other employees of the board of agriculture appeared in Cherokee Saturday morning and tried all day without success to have charges preferred against his political enemy. He still was here Saturday night.

In "The Cat" Russell stated that Brewer and other members of the board of agriculture had looted the treasury and that the bill to be voted on next Tuesday recalling the members, would cut them off from further acts of that nature.

ELECTION BULLETINS AT THE CITY HALL

Election bulletins will be given out Tuesday evening at the city hall, instead of the court house, as first announced. These will begin coming in early in the evening and will come over the wire until midnight by which time it is thought that sufficient figures will be in to enable one to forecast the result. A few may possibly come in during the day Wednesday, if there is any uncertainty regarding the result.

The Russell Bill.

All people of Ada who are friends of the Normal should vote NO on the short ballot tomorrow. The board of agriculture have been friends of all the schools. To turn against this board would not only be ungrateful but would be to the great detriment to the school system of Oklahoma. Then, too, this board has done more to uplift the farmers than any other ten factors in the state. To vote against these good men is to vote for the measure of a dreamer and against Oklahoma's best friends.

The DeSota has a most entertaining program this evening. Love Me, Love My Dog is a dog-on good one itself. Her Indian guardian is another good one. Don't forget Williams & Rose.

A minister down in Arkansas found his people too poor to purchase hymn books, says an exchange, so being offered the same book free by a patent medicine house provided they be allowed to insert their advertisement, ordered three dozen for the congregation. He was elated upon receiving them, to find no ad in same. The next Sunday he distributed the books, telling the brethren his good fortune, and requesting that they sing page 120. His chagrin may be imagined when they sang as follows: "Hark the heavenly angels sing: Johnson's Pills are just the thing. Hear their voice meek and mild—two for a man and one for a child."—Whitewright Sun.

COTTON RECEIPTS

OVER 6,500

The recent rains have had the effect of materially checking cotton receipts for the time being and the figures have not grown as rapidly as usual since the report of Wednesday. This afternoon the receipts at the county yard totaled 5,772, and the output of the round bale gin 1,646; equal to 823 square bales, making a grand total of 6,595 for the season.

These figures are just about 1,000 short of those of November 1, 1911.

The price today has been still better than Saturday, going as high as 11.85 for the best, and 4.25 to 4.35 for seed cotton.

OKLAHOMA IS SOLID FOR DEMOCRACY

"All indications point to a sweeping democratic victory in Oklahoma next Tuesday. If the Democratic vote in the southern counties goes to the polls the majority in Oklahoma will be the largest in the history of the state. Senator Owen, William H. Murray, Joe B. Thompson, Claude Weaver, Jack Love, Judge Turner and Judge Furman will run right up with the national ticket. For congress John J. Davis of the First District, John J. Carney of the Second District, James Davenport of the Third, Charles D. Carter of the Fourth and Scott Ferris of the Fifth, are certain of election. Oklahoma will send a solid delegation of eight Democrats to the next house of representatives.

The Democratic majority in the legislature will be larger than ever before.

ARMORE MAN AND NEWS BUTCHER FIGHT

Marietta, Okla., Nov. 4.—L. V. (Val) Mullen of Ardmore, one of the most widely known real estate men in Oklahoma, and G. D. Neville of Rio Vista, Texas, a train news agent were arrested here Saturday on the arrival of the midnight Santa Fe passenger train, both dangerously wounded the result, witnesses say, of a gun and knife fight that took place between the two on board the train as it neared Marietta from the south.

Neville's offense that brought on the fight, so far as can be determined consisted of attempting to sell his wares when Mullen wanted to sleep. The Love county authorities without completely investigating the shooting, permitted the removal of the men to an Ardmore hospital, where it was stated that Mullen is not seriously injured, but that Neville may die.

GUEST BROS. "THE MEN WITH THE TAPE"

MAY CLEAR MYSTERY OF BIG THEFT

Chicago, Nov. 4.—After a lapse of five years since the mysterious disappearance of $173,000 from the Chicago subtreasury, George W. Fitzgerald, former teller, who was indicted in 1910 and charged with the embezzlement of that sum, is to appear before Judge Carpenter of the United States Court in this city, this week to be tried for the alleged theft. Unusual interest is manifested in the impending trial which, it is hoped, will definitely clear up the mystery surrounding this case which for years completely puzzled the government authorities and the shrewdest among the secret service detectives.

It was in the summer of 1907 that the officials of the Chicago United States Subtreasury were startled by the information that $173,000 in bills of various denominations had mysteriously disappeared from the case of the teller, George W. Fitzgerald. Fitzgerald himself, who had been in the employ of the subtreasury for seven years, gave the first intimation of the loss of the large sum. On a Wednesday afternoon he informed the cashier, F. C. Russell, that he was short $173,000. He explained that the sum, which was missing corresponded with the total amount of a package of bills which had been retained in the teller's custody the night before.

An examination of Fitzgerald's book showed that the shortage was not a matter of bookkeeping, but of actual loss. Inquiry at Washington showed that the money had not been shipped to the federal treasury by mistake. Thomas I. Porter, chief of the United States secret service in Chicago, began a careful investigation.

BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

tion of the case and ascertained that three previous thefts had taken place. It is alleged, in Fitzgerald's cage prior to that time these losses were respectively, $500, $600 and $900. Notwithstanding this fact Fitzgerald enjoyed the full confidence of his superiors and no suspicion was attached to him. He handled about $1,000,000 each day and was considered a thoroughly efficient and reliable employee. It was his custom each night to lock the money under his charge in his own private steel box.

When questioned, Fitzgerald laid suspicion upon a party of workmen who had been employed about the subtreasury the day before the discovery of the shortage. The money, Fitzgerald stated, lay in stacks upon his desk in a dark corner of the cage and might easily have been reached from under the grating. He also said that at least a dozen men had access to the safe. Although at that time considered above suspicion, Fitzgerald was relieved from duty, but not arrested. The officers of the Secret Service began a thorough investigation of the private life of every one of the employees of the subtreasury, among them Fitzgerald's. His manner of life, it was found, was simple and unostentatious and he was popular among his companions. Fitzgerald asserted his innocence with an air of injured dignity which ultimately was effective in the absence of direct evidence in diverting suspicion to other quarters.

The case was so puzzling that, after a consultation with Secretary Shaw of the Treasury and President Roosevelt, John L. Wilke, chief of the United States secret service, took personal charge of the investigation. Fitzgerald and several other persons were persistently shadowed, but for several years absolutely no evidence could be found which would have warranted an arrest. However, no reward was offered, as this was considered useless under the circumstances. Fitzgerald, having lost his position in the subtreasury, tried to earn a living by going into the real estate business and was carefully watched. One day, in making a payment, he offered a $1,000-bill and on the strength of this and other circumstantial evidence he was arrested on suspicion, but quickly discharged again without having been formally charged with the theft.

The secret service officials continued to watch every movement of Fitzgerald and upon the strength of the circumstantial evidence accumulated in the course of several years a secret indictment was found against him in 1910. The indictment formally charged Fitzgerald with the embezzlement of $173,000 and he was arrested, but the trial was delayed for various reasons until it was set for this week. It is believed that both sides are fully prepared to bring the case to trial and it is believed that Fitzgerald will make a determined fight, assisted by some of the best legal talent in the city.

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

Your 1912 tax was due November 1st, 1912.

If you want to pay your tax in halves without any penalty you will have to pay your first half before the first day of December, 1912, or you will have to pay penalty on the first half from Dec. 2, 1912, until paid.

If the first half is not paid before January 1st, 1913, all your tax becomes delinquent and will all have to be paid at one time with a penalty of 18 per cent per annum from January 1st, 1913, until paid. If one-half is paid before January 1st, 1913, you will have until June 15th, 1913, to pay the last half, without penalty. The law requires each and every tax payer to furnish me with a list of his property when he comes to pay his tax or when he writes to find out what they are, for example; if it is personal property (which means all property other than real estate) give name of town or municipal township you were assessed in. For example: John Smith, personal tax in town of Stonehill, or Fitzhugh township or whatever town or township it might be in.

If you own town lots give me your Lot No., Block No. and name of town it is in or if in some one of the additions, of a town, give name of Addition and town. Example: Lot 1 in Block 2 in Frisco Addition to the town of Francis, Oklahoma.

If you own farm land give me the calls of your land, Sec. No. Township and Range. Example: SW 4 SW 1 of Sec. 16, Twp. 2 North, Range 5 East, Fitzhugh Township.

Your 1911 tax receipt will be a good list but check it over and see that all your property is shown on it.

Trusting that each and every tax payer will be kind enough to do as required, I am yours for the very best service I can render you.

RIT ERWIN,
County Treasurer.

P. S.—If you don't furnish list as required by law, when you write about your tax your letter won't be answered for I will not know what property you own, and if you don't have a list of your property when you come to pay your tax, the man who has his list will be waited on first and I will wait on you when there is no one waiting. STEEL TRUST BACK OF T. R. TRUST PLAN

Charge Challenged, Gov. Wilson
Returns With Prompt and Convincing Answer.

COUNTRY WAITED FOR CLASH

Wondered if It Was to Produce a
Parallel of Parker Episode—More Proof If It Is Wanted.

When the country read on the morning of Oct. 8 the charge of Woodrow Wilson before his audience in Colorado that the steel trust is back of the Roosevelt program of trust regulation and in the same papers Colonel Roosevelt's demand for proof of the assertion it sat up and took notice. Would this produce a parallel of the famous episode of the 1904 campaign, when the colonel called Judge Parker a liar for asserting (what has been so recently proved) that the corporations were contributing to the Roosevelt campaign?

There was eager waiting for Governor Wilson's answer. It came promptly the next day in his speech at Kansas City. Concisely, convincingly and dispassionately Governor Wilson met the Roosevelt challenge, and should the controversy be pressed further the Democratic candidate will give the Bull Moose all he wants, for the corroboration whereof he spoke is abundant.

Wilson's Charge.

At Pueblo, the center of the western steel industry, Governor Wilson said: "Evidence of what I am about to say comes to me by way of corroboration every day in forms that I cannot question. It is a very interesting circumstance that the United States Steel corporation is behind the third party program with regard to the regulation of the trusts."

"Now, I do not say that to prejudice you. I am perfectly ready to admit that the officers of that corporation may think that the third party is the best thing for the United States. That is not my point. My point is that these gentlemen have grown up in the atmosphere of the things they themselves have created and that the laws of the United States so far have attempted to destroy the things that they have created and that they want a government which will perpetuate the things they have created."

Roosevelt's Challenge.

The same night at Albany, N. Y., Colonel Roosevelt upon reading reports of Governor Wilson's speech said:

"As far as I know the statement has not the slightest foundation in fact. Mr. Wilson has no business to make such a statement unless he has the proof, and if he has any proof I demand that he make it public immediately. If he has not let him retract his statement as the only manly and honorable thing to do."

Wilson's "Retort Courteous."

The next night Governor Wilson made this reply before the great audience that greeted him in Kansas City:

"I understand from the newspaper reports that Mr. Roosevelt was distressed by my suggestion the other day that the United States Steel corporation was back of his plan for controlling the trusts. He interpreted my remark to mean that they were supporting him with their money. I was not thinking about money."

"I do not know whether they are supporting him with their money or not. It does not make any difference. What I meant was that they are supporting him with their thought, and their thought is not our thought. I meant, and I say again, that the kind of control which he proposes is the kind of control that the United States Steel corporation wants."

"I am perfectly willing to admit that they think it is the best for the country. My point is that this is a method conceived from the point of view of the very men who are to be controlled and that that is just the wrong point of view from which to conceive it."

"If Mr. Roosevelt is willing to have Mr. Perkins suggest how the corporations ought to be regulated why will he not be willing to take suggestions from the same quarters as to the details of the regulation? Mark you, ladies and gentlemen, I am not discussing individuals. I know Mr. George Perkins. I have no quarrel with anything except his judgment. He does not look at these things in the way men who do not wish to accustom their minds to monopoly look at them."

There should be an immediate revision of the tariff downward. It should begin with the schedules most obviously used to kill competition and raise prices in the United States, and should be extended to every item which affords opportunity for monopoly and special advantage until special favors shall have been absolutely withdrawn and our laws of taxation transformed from a system of governmental patronage into a system of just and reasonable charges which shall fall where they will create the least burden.

Socialism vs. Common Sense.

In this, the closing days of the campaign, it seems absolutely necessary for something to be done or said to bring the "wayfaring man" back in line. Something should be said or done that will stem the tide of discontent, this spirit of evil in form of Socialism; a political organization which declares, "Arise slaves of the world; no God, no master, one for all and all for one."

It is true indeed, that existing conditions are intolerable. The railroads, the trusts, the tariff, the money power, control in government, and the burdens upon the people grow heavier every day. These wrongs have ripened into oppression in the last dozen years, under the administration of two men, namely Taft and Roosevelt, who fiercely contending for another lease of power, have rent asunder the Republican party organization. A crisis is at hand. Passion and prejudice rage about us. It is time for deliberate action.

True, faithful, and honest is Woodrow Wilson, the distinguished scholar, who is Democratic nominee for the presidency, an acknowledged scholar and statesman, and now a man to whom the entire nation has bowed and lifted its hat of respect. Of course it is generally conceded that Wilson will be elected president of the United States, but it is essential to do something to arouse the non-thinking class to a noble, patriotic awakening before it is too late to cast an honest vote for an honorable cause. This socialistic movement should be fought from all sides, and by all classes.

In this a country where schools are the best, wages the highest, and work the most plentiful; in this, a country where the most humble citizen can aspire to the highest office, and yet when driven and controlled by capital and boss rule, a blind and ignorant people will attempt to overthrow our great government by a band of anarchists, who claim to be Socialists, (a milder term for anarchists, hypocrisy, infidelity and debauchery). I personally appeal to the "workers of the world" to arise in their might and fight this financial oppression, and boss rule.

Go to the polls tomorrow stamp under the Democratic emblem and thereby do a service for your country. Why should free, civilized America stand idly by and see the greatest nation under God's kingdom cast into an everlasting hell of anarchy? I do not believe that the populace of the "land of liberty" will heed the calling of this class of political "piebunters."

Go to the polls and vote as every honest man should. But, for "love of Mike," if not for love of decency, go commit suicide before you vote a Socialist ticket.

The Socialist party in theory, stands for the destruction of all existing society, the burning of the constitution and legal form of marriage. I challenge any representative socialist to deny same in joint debate. Come on "Kumrid" I will break your political neck and peel your worthless pelt off before you stop kicking.

Signed: DAVID C. STEPHENSON.
